

The expenses of the Tewksbury investigation up to date amount to $8,675.57, which $2522.57 is due to George C. Burdett for short-hand work, $580 to G. A. E. Thusen, $310 to F. B. Records and $200 to L. S. Fairbanks, severally, for expert work on the accounts and records; witness fees about $800; writing about $4000; travel of district police 200.